

Hungary's contribution to the rest of the World

(short list)

György Mohai

ISEEE Conference Budapest
15-18 September 2013

THE WELL KNOWN ONES

SCIENCE

Saviour of the mothers: Ignac Semmelweis: doctors, wash your hand before you enter the delivery room (1818-1865)

Stress: Janos Selye, 1936

C-vitamin: Albert Szentgyörgyi Nobel prize 1937

Computer: John von Neumann (1904-1957) computers operate according to the Neumann Principle

Nuclear science: Ede Teller, Leo Szilárd, Jenő Wigner core scientists of the Manhattan Plan (Second World War, the nuclear bomb)

TECHNICAL DEVELOPMENT

Color television: Karoly Goldmark 1940

Hologram: Gábor Dénes, Noble prize in 1971

Dynamo (electric supply of cars) and ... carbonated (soda) water Ányos Jedlik (1800-1895)

Ballpen: Biró, József 1938

Intel inside: Andrew Grove - „only the paranoid will survive”

Euro, EU capital markets: Alexander Lámfalussy BIS, ECB
European Monetary Institute (ECB predecessor) president

EUROPEAN UNION

Opening the iron curtain in September 1988, resulting in the fall of the Berlin Wall in November 1988

